FAMILY INFLUENCE

Disorder in the society is the result of disorder in the family. —St. Angela Merici

A quote from Pope Francis to us all

"We are afraid of the definitive. And to choose a vocation, any vocation, including vocations that involve a 'state' such as marriage, consecrated life, the priesthood, one must choose with a view to the definitive. This is contrary to the culture of the provisional. It is a part of the culture in which we must live in this time, but we must live through this and conquer it."

-- Meeting at Lourdes with young people embarking on vocational journey, June 30, 2014

Stewardship Reflection

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jon 3: 1-5, 10; Ps 25: 4-9; 1 Cor 7: 29-31; Mk 1: 14-20

"Come after me and I will make you fishers of men." (Mark 1:17) Most of us have heard that scriptural quote many times. It occurs at the very beginning of Mark's Gospel and involves Mark's reporting of the beginning of Jesus' ministry in Galilee. There is a reason that Jesus called these simple men to be His first followers. In part it is an example to each of us.

Peter, Andrew, James, and John were not theologians; they were not learned; they were not known for their skills in speaking to and influencing crowds of people. They were fishermen. God has gifted each of us with various skills and stewardship calls us to use those skills to build the Kingdom of God.

However, just as the Lord recognized something in those first Apostles, He sees the same in us. It was not what Jesus thought those men could accomplish, but His understanding of what they could do with Him, and Him working through them. In the same way we can accomplish much if we allow the Lord to work within us and through us. The well known late broadcaster Paul Harvey once said, "Too many Christians are no longer fishers of men, but keepers of the aquarium." Stewardship is the means by which we, just as the first Apostles did, can become evangelists and "fishermen," so to speak.

Cathedral Parish School, a community of Faith, Knowledge and Service hosts an OPEN HOUSE on Sunday, January 25 from 1 to 3 pm. Join after Mass for a reception and a tour of the campus and classrooms. Meet some of the families and staff. Located in the heart of historic Saint Augustine at 259 Saint George Street. 904-824-2861 www.thecathedralparishschool.org

Baby Items for St. Gerard's Campus

The OLGC Respect Life Ministry will continue collecting items for St. Gerard's. There is a basket in Pod 1 to place items. Diapers (all sizes) and baby food are always welcome items. Used baby items are welcomed.

OLGC has its own parish cemetery for in-ground burial. For cremation, we also provide a beautiful columbarium adorned with a statue of Michelangelo's "Pieta". Parishioners have also recently built a new altar in the cemetery for memorial Masses. Information is available at the Parish Office regarding rates and policies. Please call 904-824-8688.
