Catholicism DVD Miniseries to be Shown

The Bible Study Ministry has completed their study of Acts of the Apostles and has decided to close out the year by viewing and discussing the 10-part Catholicism series by Fr. Robert Baron. If you have not seen it, it is a beautifully done DVD mini-series that captures over 50 locations throughout 15 countries in high-definition video. Fr. Robert Baron brings to life the spiritual and artistic treasures of the Catholic Church in an informative and thoroughly entertaining way.

All are welcome to attend. There is no cost and the sessions will begin gathering on Thursdays at 6:45 PM in the main body of the Church. The DVDs will start at 7 pm promptly. Each video lasts approximately 45 minutes and all that wish to stay afterwards to discuss them are welcome. The first session was Thursday, April 9th and we will run through Thursday, June 11.

Stewardship Reflection

Acts 4: 32-35; Ps 118: 2-4, 13-15, 22-24; 1 Jn 5: 1-6; Jn 20: 19-31

"The community of believers was of one heart and one mind." For those who practice stewardship as a way of life every passage from Holy Scripture contains a stewardship message. However, today's readings are particularly special in that regard. The first reading from the Acts of the Apostles speaks to the sense of unity and teamwork of the early Church. Our own parishes may reflect this idea that we are one, and that we have a common purpose.

One of the great misconceptions of this particular scriptural passage is that it reflects what we might term a "sense of Communism." However, as we as Catholics and stewards reflect upon this, we must understand a basic difference. Communism says "What you think is yours is really mine." Our faith, our community, and our good stewards say, "What may seem to be mine is really yours."

"No one claimed that any of his possessions was his own." This is the stewardship understanding that, first and foremost, everything comes from, is gifted by, and is possessed by God, not by us. In addition, stewards understand that all their gifts are to be shared with others. The key to this entire passage is, nonetheless, that the early Christians regarded people as more important than things. As difficult as this may be for us, that is to what we are called, as well.

2015 OLGC "350 Club"

We are up to 203 tickets sold after the March 29th weekend. This leaves 147 tickets to be sold to attain our 350 goal. That leaves only two more weekends to get these tickets sold. Please talk to all you know to tell them to please buy a 350 Ticket. Thanks to all who have bought a ticket and for those outstanding tickets, please consider buying one. Ticket sales will end on April 21st, with the first drawing on April 26th. If we reach our goal of selling 350 tickets before April 21st, we will stop accepting any more tickets. Again thanks for all who help in this great fund raiser for OLGC.

PARKING LOT EXPANSION

Our parish is clearly growing, as is the need for more parking space. To address this present need, we are going to place more millings and numerous more lights outside toward the East (cross side), in those rows closest to the church. These millings are a solid road surface through which grass can grow. Much of our parking in that area already has the same.

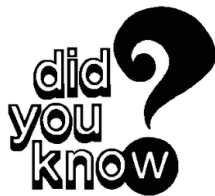

This project is not in the budget. It will cost approximately $18,000.00. If you would like to make a donation toward that project, please do so by way of a check made out to OLGC with the notation "special project/parking" on the memo line.

Thanks, Father Guy

Communications Committee Forming:

Father Guy is seeking to form a small ad hoc knowledgeable committee regarding parish communications. This would entail an integrated and systematic look at available parish communication possibilities covering electronic, printed and audio visual communications such as website, flyers, YouTube, Face book, bulletin, announcements, signage, etc.

The purpose is mapping out a long-term step-by-step communications strategy that will be slowly implemented over a few years, within our financial and personnel means.

Please contact the office if you are interested.
