Our Lady of Good Counsel History

The church that enshrines the original painting of Our Lady of Good Counsel is located in the small town of Genazzano, about 30 miles southeast of Rome. As early as the fifth century, the people of Genazzano were greatly devoted to the Blessed Virgin Mary. When Pope Sixtus III ( 432- 440 ) asked for donations to restore the Basilica of St. Mary Major in Rome, the faithful were generous in their support. Shortly thereafter, they built the church dedicated to Our Lady of Good Counsel in Genazzano. The church was entrusted to the care of the Augustinian Fathers in 1356.

With the passage of time, it was necessary to repair the church and it appeared that only a local widow, Petruccia de Geneo, was willing to aid with the financing of the restoration. She was criticized by some of her neighbors but her efforts were rewarded by the miraculous event of April 25, 1467.

According to legend, the entire town was participating in the yearly feast in honor of St. Mark the Evangelist. The church was still unfinished and roofless when the image of the Madonna and Child was transported there from its former location in Scutari, Albania. Around four o'clock that afternoon, the multitude of people saw a mysterious cloud descend upon the church. The church bells rang of their own accord and the cloud parted revealing the portrait. The image, 15 inches wide by 17 inches high, came to rest on a narrow ledge in the church and remains in that position to this day. The painting is a fresco, painted on a thin layer of plaster as thin and fragile as an egg shell.

Within weeks, two refugees from Albania arrived in Genazzano. They testified before the papal delegation that the same image was in a church in the Albanian town of Scutari only a few weeks earlier. When the town was on the verge of being invaded, the portrait was miraculously relocated for its own protection. The commission verified that there was indeed an empty space in the plaster wall of the church at Scutari, the exact size of the portrait. The unfinished church was soon completed after the miraculous event of April 1467, and became a place of pilgrimage. Within the first six months alone, over 170 healings and miracles were recorded.

The miraculous image, at first called the Madonna of Paradise, has always been regarded with special favor by the Apostolic See. Pope Paul II ( 1464-1471 ) called for an investigation and gave initial approval to devotion to Our Lady of Good Counsel. Pope St. Pius V ( 1565-1572 ) attributed the victory in the Battle of Lepanto to the help of Our Lady of Good Counsel.

In 1753, Pope Benedict XIV approved the placing of a gold crown over the image and in 1779 Pope Pius VI granted the Augustinian Order the special privilege of celebrating the Feast Day each year on April 26. Pope Pius IX ( 1846-1878 ) had special devotion to Our Lady under this title and made a pilgrimage to Genazzano in 1864.

More than any other pope, Pope Leo XIII ( 1878- 1903 ) had a deep love for this devotion. He was born in the town of Carpineto, not far from the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, and elevated the shrine to the status of a Minor Basilica. In 1903, he inserted the title "Mater Boni Consilii" into the Litany of Loreto and also had a copy of the image installed in the Pauline Chapel of the Vatican Basilica. Pope Pius XII ( 1939-1958 ) dedicated his entire pontificate to the Madonna of Good Counsel and Pope John XXIII ( 1958-1963 ) made a visit to the shrine in 1959. The present church was built in 1628. In World War II, a bomb crashed through the roof, destroying the sanctuary and high altar. The fragile image of Our Lady of Good Counsel was only a few yards away but was miraculously undamaged. The above article about OLGC appeared in the Fairfield County Catholic January 1996.

BISHOP'S APPEAL ... AND:

I want to thank all of us at OLGC who participated to date in the Bishops' Appeal. I am told that we have among the highest participation rates in the Diocese: 239 parishioner donors vs 221 last year -- an increase of 18 households. 46.68% of the parish, an increase of 4.34%, vs diocesan average of 20.92% with a diocesan increase of 2.9%. Total amount pledged by OLGC is $67,439.

This entails significant sacrifice for the diocese. Thank you for your support to Catholic Charities, schools, seminarian-development and other concerns.

Regarding OLGC, our parish is facing some new and very significant head winds itself going forward.

In the past year we grew about 100 households. Then again, there are presently about another 1,000 houses being built in the parish area. Statistically, about 10%/100 of these will become homes for practicing Catholics with an average of 3 persons per home. That means about another 300 + persons in this church building within one year.

That's only the 1st wave. Right after that there are more waves coming, so it looks something like this:

- 1.) Right now we are 500 households / 1,500 parishioners
- 2.) Within a year 1,000 more houses will be built / 300 new parishioners.
- 3.) Right after that another 1,800 homes with 540 new parishioners.
- 4.) Then 3,600 homes with about 1,080 new parishioners.
- 5.) Finally -- we hope! - "Silverleaf, (right next to church)10,700 homes with 3,210 new parishioners.

Total: 6,630 parishioners. Yikes!

Clearly within the next few years we will have to plan and build for the future. Actually, for the very near future. Do we have the heart for it? The resources? The needed solidarity? Come Holy Spirit. . . Yikes again! Father Guy

2015 OLGC “350 Club”

We have sold 291 tickets for the “350 Club” but need to break the 300 barrier and a few more to make the Church at least $10,000. As such we are extending the selling of tickets through the weekend of April 26th to make this goal and we will have two drawings the first week in May to make up for extending the ticket sales. Thanks to all who have bought a ticket and please consider buying another, or if you have not bought your ticket, you now have an extra weekend to bring it in.

OLGC Ladies’ Guild Troop Support Project

We are in need of the following supplies for the troops:

Beef jerky, food snacks, personal hygiene products (small sizes), white socks, white T-shirts. These are the items we need the most but otherwise items that fit into backpacks/duffle bags and items that do not melt! Please place in Pod # 1 in the plastic bins (over by the exit door). Thank You!
