Some people have called Pope Francis Marxist? This is interesting and shows a great deal of factual ignorance. Why? Because the slightest bit of research will show that as Provincial of the Jesuits in Argentina he specifically was a force who led away from Marxist ideologies during the "Dirty War" period.

OLGC Ladies' Guild
Troop Support Project

We are in need of the following supplies for the troops:

Beef jerky, food snacks, personal hygiene products (small sizes), white socks, white T-shirts. These are the items we need the most but otherwise items that fit into backpacks/duffle bags and items that do not melt!

Please place in Pod # 1 in the plastic bins (over by the exit door). Thank You!

Stewardship Reflection:June 28, 2015

Wis 1: 13-15; 2: 23-24; Ps 30: 2, 4, 5-6, 11-13; 2 Cor 8: 7, 9, 13-15; Mk 5: 21-43

In today's Second Reading, St. Paul quotes Exodus 16:18: "Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less." On the surface this may seem confusing, but it bears a strong stewardship message for us.

One of the challenges of our society is the tendency to gather and to keep and to measure our success by possessions. Jesus told us over and over in a variety of ways that "possessions" are a major stumbling block in our journey toward holiness. Stewardship was once defined by a bishop as:

1. Following faithfully
2. Living responsibly
3. Sharing gratefully
4. Possessing loosely

This, in a nutshell, is what it means to be a good steward.

That is the message from St. Paul, as well. As difficult as it may be for us, we need to focus on others in service more than we should try to glorify ourselves through what we may seem to have. In particular we need to focus on the "possess loosely" aspect. That is more than material items, of course. We have a tendency to "hang on" to traditions, people, and other things that we view as "ours." Pope Francis cautions us, "A heart occupied with the desire to possess is a heart full of this desire, but without God."

Normal Deadline for Bulletin Information is 3 pm Monday* The NEW bulletin e-mail is bulletinolgc@gmail.com and the easiest method for the Bulletin Editor. However, you can mail your information to the OLGc Parish Office which must arrive 06 days before the publication date*.
