Divorced or Remarried?

One of the many gifts of Pope Francis to the Church is his pastoral focus on families and opening up discussion among the world bishops regarding healing after divorce and remarriage. His main concern is to see if we can simplify the process for annulments so as to bring more persons to the reception of the Eucharist (the 'medicine of mercy' for the whole Church).
If you have been divorced and/or also remarried, I invite you to come and discuss with me your particular circumstances.

PULPIT ANNOUNCEMENTS AND BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS

As part of our five-year review and parish planning we are going to try a change in pulpit announcements. Instead of reading them at the end of each Mass, they will be printed in list-form in the bulletin so that they can be easily found in one place, on one page. This will require a change in discipline: to date pulpit announcements were due on Thursdays for office printing on Friday. This new practice will likely require pulpit announcements due into the office by Monday afternoon for entry into the bulletin. More on this going forward. Right now this is just a "heads up".

Pope Francis has instituted a new tribunal to hold bishops accountable under church law for measures they have or have not taken regarding the protection of children and vulnerable adults. A number of bishops and Archbishops have handed in their resignations during his Pontificate, including two in the United States recently.

Stewardship Reflection:July 05, 2015

Ez 2: 2-5; Ps 123: 1-4; 2 Cor 12: 7-10; Mk 6: 1-6

St. Paul declares in his letter to the Corinthians, the Second Reading, "For when I am weak, then I am strong." Certainly anyone who knows much about St. Paul would not view him as a weak man. This is a man who, through his strong faith, put his life in jeopardy constantly. He endured imprisonment and shipwrecks. Yet, he admits to having weaknesses.

There is something humiliating in admitting one's weaknesses. Humility is an important trait in living a life of stewardship. Being able to recognize and admit our shortcomings is essential for us to have the strength Paul demonstrates. That is his point in today's reading, and it contains an important message for each of us.

The reason St. Paul finds strength in his limitations is because he is aware that the Lord will provide the power needed in the midst of those deficiencies. Paul's life is God-centered. Living life that way is exactly the way one can best follow stewardship as a way of life. Paul prefaces his statement about being weak and strong by writing the message he has been given by the Lord, who said to him: "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness." May we pray for the strength of God's presence, and may we be willing to seek humility to truly find our strengths.
