Why does the Church involve itself in issues of social justice, war and peace, the economy, the environment, etc? Because faith is not lived in a vacuum (in the air), but on land, with all the social, political and financial issues that affect each one of us from day to day.

SAVE THE DATE!

Parish wide FIVE YEAR PLANNING meeting, please choose ONE of the following dates: November 7 or November 14, both are Saturdays from 8:30 am to Noon and both meetings are exactly the same. RESPECT LIFE

A meeting for everyone who has a dedication to respecting life at all stages, respecting all people despite handicaps and infirmaries. The Respect Life Committee is planning on aspects to address during October which is Respect Life Month in the Diocese of St. Augustine. Come and provide some ideas. Mark your calendars for Tuesday, Sept 15 at 9:00 AM and 7:00 PM.

“Walking With Purpose”, Bible Study Fellowship for Women is in need of fully cleared volunteers to help with child care for our Wednesday morning sessions starting in October. Our Thursday evening class was so successful last year that we are adding a second session on Wednesdays in order to allow more ladies to attend. The classes will run from 10 am until Noon each week, with breaks for holidays and school vacations. We need a few dependable volunteers to give of their time by babysitting at the church during the sessions. Moms will be nearby at all times, should any problems arise. All volunteers must be fully cleared by the diocese. If you are able to give of your time to provide Moms with the opportunity to attend this wonderful program, please contact Stephanie Hardin at 386-237-5907 or stephardin@gmail.com
