FESTIV'ALL -- A nice time was had by all!

Last weekend we were blessed with beautiful weather -- cool enough to not break out into a sweat with the Saturday-night sock hop; sunny enough to shine on people and cars the next day. Lots of food, beverage and games on the Midway, and a nice display of 61 vintage cars formed a patchwork of fun from parking to pumpkin patch. A very nice event of OLGc parish hospitality for family, friends and neighborhoods.

Thank you ALL who behind the scenes and on the scene brought this plan to fruition. The early days were not easy -- different ideas as to just what our festival should be and different manners of planning. After numerous bumps early most all challenges were overcome and a very pleasant spirit of conviviality and creativity set in.

A report on the event will be forthcoming in the next week or so.

Father Guy
