Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church is hiring a "Family Catechetical Program Coordinator" to work primarily with students K-8 grade. The ideal candidate for this part-time position (15-20 hours per week) will have: excellent organizational skills, exceptional interpersonal and written communication skills, Microsoft Office proficiency, and enthusiasm to pass on the Catholic faith to children and their families.

Inquiries should be sent to Rob Sims at olgcmc@gmail.com by 15 April 2016.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE:

The parish has a standing Communications Committee that has been looking at a whole spectrum of communications concerns. A few of their efforts have recently come to fruition:

a) the large 55" outdoor TV that rotates all announcements and can be edited remotely. This will run daily from around 7:00 am to 10:00 pm 7 days a week. (A non glare cover will also be placed on the screen). Two major donors covered the majority of expense related to this project. Thank you, Rick Jarvis, Tom Kissell, Guy Maltese and Claude Fiori, and also their very helpful team(s) for realizing the installation of this project.

b) Bulletin: will now have a few more additional pages and will be in color. This is done at no added cost to the parish; increased costs of color publication will be covered by advertisers solicited through the bulletin company itself. Thank you, Jeanne Vecchione for executing these changes studied in the Communications Committee.

c) Face Book: a popular social medium; changes are being made to this over the next few weeks. Thank you Krystal Barrios and others working with her to add this to parish effective in-reach and out-reach communications.

More coming.

Father Guy

Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord

The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that "Easter is not simply one feast among others, but the 'Feast of feasts,' the 'Solemnity of solemnities,' just as the Eucharist is the 'Sacrament of sacraments.' The mystery of the Resurrection, in which Christ crushed death, permeates with its powerful energy our old time, until all is subjected to Him." (#1169)

It is difficult for us to fully comprehend the importance of this day and its meaning for us, its fulfillment of hope for us. We consider this to be the most important day on our Church calendar. If we have properly approached the Lenten period, this day comes at the end of a period of prayer and fasting and almsgiving. We should have been prepared to spiritually die with Christ, and to rise as He did on this day to the promise of new life both in this world and the next.

Christ has saved us, and that alone is reason for our joyous celebration. By receiving the Eucharist (communion) on this day, we make a visible sign of our faith and our participation in the Kingdom of God.

Some are here today who may only come to church once a year, but this is the day to come to be sure. We welcome you with the love of Christ, and as good stewards, we invite you to become a more intimate part of our faith community, so that you, too, can realize that "God is good — all the time."
