HOUSEKEEPING MINISTRY NEEDS HELP CLEANING OUR/YOUR CHURCH:

The Housekeeping Ministry that cleans our/your Church every Saturday is in need of more folks to help out. At present time we have 2 crews that do the job every other week. Our activities consist of some mopping of floors, straightening of church chairs, some sweeping, getting all the garbage out, some dusting of the Altar, vacuuming of rug areas, cleaning windows and getting the bathroom area cleaned up.

We begin at 8:30 am and complete everything in about 1-1/2 hours. We have a good time in accomplishing a necessary service for our Church. It is a great way for a parent and child to have a sense of accomplishment in the name of Jesus Christ and provide a service to fellow parishioners.

Please call either Bob Mathison [940-9560] or Ed Wagner [940-6967] to offer your assistance.

MEN'S CLUB COMING EVENTS:

MEN'S CLUB "MAN OF THE YEAR" ANNOUNCEMENT:

On Sunday, June 12th the OLG Men's Club attended the 8 am Mass before attending their Communion-Breakfast at Marywood Retreat Center. It was great to see the 20 or so men attend Mass and then enjoy a delicious buffet breakfast. Before breakfast a short meeting was held where they discussed the various activities that had been planned and for those that are still to come through the end of this year. They had a Guest Speaker which was one of their own members, Claude Fiori, who gave the members an overview of what is involved as both he and Don Pepino go through the Diocese's long and extensive program leading to becoming a Deacon in the Catholic Church. Claude also updated the Men on what is happening and accomplished in the OLG Youth Group and how the Men's Club can help if possible.

The highlight of the day was the announcement of the Man of the Year. This award is given to the man who had been a great help and resource to the Club and the Parish doing many things for both and being an unsung hero in accomplishing things in our Church community. The past Man of the Year winners voted that this award should go to CLAUDE FIORI. Congratulations CLAUDE FIORI — 2016-2017 OLG MEN'S CLUB "MAN OF THE YEAR"!
