CALLING MILITARY — ACTIVE, RESERVE, GUARD or RETIRED

Our Lady of Good Counsel (OLGC) Church will host the November 6th – 16th, 2016 “FALLEN HEROES MILITARY TRIBUTE”. Various church groups have previously managed this non-denominational event to honor Floridian men and women who perished in Iraq or Afghanistan. There will be nearly 400 individually identified crosses set in a “Field of Crosses”.

OLGC committee members are seeking military members from all services and components to serve as advisors to this endeavor. Military members do not need to be OLGC parishioners nor Catholic to participate. Of special note is an invitation for combat experienced military members to give brief testimonials to their fellow comrades’ loved ones during the opening ceremony on Sunday, November 6th from 3 to 5 pm.

Please contact Ed Moitoza (940-8956) or Dennis Kompare (940-7820) for more information.

The Troop Support Ministry would like to have addresses of anyone in our parish or family/friend of anyone in our parish who is currently deployed in any war zone.

We send packages of food and other items to those troops deployed in areas where it is often difficult for them to get needed personal items.

Please contact Jackie Stubbs at jstubbs70@att.net or 904-940-6997.

Troop Support needs: chewing gum, hard candies, jerky, adult coloring books and boxes of colored pencils, paperback books, hand wipes, white T-shirts and white socks (men's and women's), foot powder, retractable flyswatters and backscratchers. NOTE: If the backscratchers are not retractable, please get them at Pier One as they are the only ones that fit into the shipping boxes.

“Protecting God’s Children” (PGC)

“Protecting God’s Children for Adults” (PGC) 3 hour session is on Saturday, July 30, 2016 from 9 am to Noon in OLGC Conference Room.

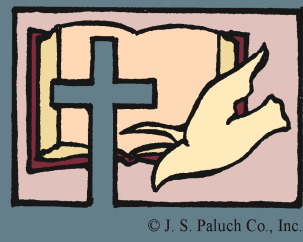

Please register on www.virtus.org and select Saint Augustine, FL (Diocese). Look for the session at OLGC and register at no cost.

This session is open only to OLGC volunteers age 18 and older with a limit of 25 persons.

NO WALK-INS and NO CHILDREN. Please be on time!

FAITH FORMATION

Catechist recruitment — we need you!

Here at OLGC we are blessed to have a group of catechists who love sharing their faith with Mary’s children/our children! We have an obligation to educate our children!

Our Parish Faith Formation/Family Catechesis Program needs more catechists – individuals to share your knowledge with our children, to serve either SUNDAYS or MONDAYS.

If you cannot commit fully to the entire academic year, substitute Catechists (“Subs”) are needed.

“Subs” serve as needed when you are available.

Classes will be from September 2016 through May 2017.

If you would like to be involved in this important ministry, please contact Andrew Tierney at olgc.andrew@gmail.com

Not the same old song and dance:

St. Johns middle school composer aims to be the next John Williams.

By Martie Thompson
editor@floridanewslines.com

Switzerland Point Middle School seventh grader Peter Goricki is a big fan of composer John Williams; the score to “E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial” is his favorite composition. One day not long ago while doing some internet research on Williams, Goricki learned Williams’ net worth — and according to his mom, Dr. Constanze Goricki — Peter was so impressed he decided to start writing music.

At first, he wrote for his family.

“My dad asked me to write him a song for his birthday,” Goricki said. “He liked it very much and then I wrote a song for him and my mom for Christmas and my mom’s birthday.”

After his initial songwriting success for his family, he decided to try to write his first full length piece of music — an opus with three movements. He showed it to Jacksonville Symphony Youth Orchestra conductor Judy Steinmeyer, who was so intrigued she took the music home. She determined it was too advanced for the youth symphony and suggested Goricki write a less complicated piece.

Thus, “Dreams,” a two-minute classical composition was born. Goricki said it took him four hours to write the piece, which was performed by the Jacksonville Symphony Youth Orchestra on May 9 — the first time that a piece composed by a student-musician was performed.

Although he started writing just more than a year ago, Goricki is a prolific composer and estimates that he has now written between 40 and 50 songs.

Goricki has been drawn to music for most of his young life, playing violin at age seven and piano at nine. He said he learned the violin first because he heard one played at church and liked the sound. He was encouraged by his elementary school music teacher at Hickory Creek, Rhonda Gauger.

Goricki now plays in the Switzerland Point Middle School Wind Ensemble, despite the fact he does not play a wind instrument. Director Laurie Zentz suggested he play the upright bass, so he learned that as well.

When he was eight years old, he auditioned with his violin for the Jacksonville Symphony Youth Orchestra and was accepted. Although he says he now prefers writing music, like his idol John Williams, Goricki plans to continue playing.

While playing violin remains his favorite, Steinmeyer suggested he learn viola — a larger instrument with a different clef. Goricki picked it up easily and plans to play both violin and viola with the youth symphony next year. He plays in the Premiere Strings now, but plans to audition for the higher level Repertory or Philharmonic orchestras next year.

He is also in the jazz ensemble at his school and performs at his church in addition to the youth symphony. He hopes to be accepted at Douglas Anderson School of the Arts when it is time for high school.

In his spare time, he takes ballroom dancing lessons. His favorite dance is the tango and — not surprisingly — he has recently written a tango piece.
