Catholic Heart Workcamp

July 10 to 15, 2016

OLGC YRU!/Youth Ministry High School Students and two Supervisors on our First Parish Youth Mission Trip.

Through the generous donations of many parishioners and the hard work (and some of their own money) of our youth group (YRU!), we were able to help make a difference in the lives of many needy Florida residents and families. In giving up some of their own money as well as a week of their summer break, our group joined over 200 other youth from across the country in visiting over 30 homes and facilities in the Melbourne, FL area last month. Some of the youth worked in community outreach centers, others worked on home and yard improvement projects, and others performed all sorts of needed manual labor at various churches, charter schools, community centers, shelters and other facilities. After long, hard days, the youth joined their new friends for evenings filled with prayer services, adoration, group bonding activities and some pure fun before going to sleep on a high school classroom floor and starting all over at 6 am the next morning. All of the youth had positive experiences and many have said they feel called to continue this type of effort both annually as well as during weekends and other free time back home. Anyone concerned with the youth of our country need only to look to these future leaders to have a great deal of optimism in what lies ahead.

August Message of Mercy
 "Show us, LORD, your mercy;
 grant us your salvation."
 Psalm 85: 8

EUCHARIST:
 THE ULTIMATE COMMUNICATION OF DIVINE MERCY
 By FR. LEONARD CHUWA, A.J., PHD
 Saturday, September 10th, 2016
 9:00 am until 3:00 pm
 Cost $20 lunch included

Being the face of God's mercy Jesus communicates Himself fully in the mystery of the Eucharist. As Jesus' disciples, all Christians are called to be like Christ, to be mercy. The Eucharist is communion with Christ's mystical body and a covenant to be as merciful as our Heavenly Father is merciful. Both aspects of the Great Commandment of Love can only be understood from the perspective of Divine Mercy and empathy. How are we going to be students in Christ's school of mercy?
