The Catholic Home Missions Appeal (CHMA) will be taken up in all parishes of the diocese, May 6-7. It was established to strengthen the Church here at home. Almost half of the dioceses in the United States struggle to make ends meet and without support from this appeal would not be able to sustain many of their essential ministries. Dear Parishioners:

Over the past year and one half we have been looking at varied areas of parish life and ministry that were focused upon during the development of a five-year plan. Within that context we started a Welcome New Members Committee, have started a revamp of K-8 Religious Education, and are looking at varied aspects of the Liturgy. (A survey will be coming out regarding the same). We are also considering 'down the road' a bit further, varied topics that might be considered for Adult Religious Formation, and some other initiatives.

Part of the Catholic Faith, indeed a core aspect of the faith (PP. Paul VI), is the body of Church teachings regarding social issues and justice. In fact, a considerable corpus of works has developed over the past years, at least from PP Leo XIII (d. July 20, 1903) all the way through to the present Pope and Bishop of Rome, Francis.

Although these are core considerations ranging on a wide spectrum of topics addressed and evolving over the years, the majority of Catholics are unfamiliar with these teachings. In order to begin familiarizing us as a community to these concerns we are starting a weekly "Catholic Social Teaching" corner in the bulletin. Perhaps this will foster some interesting discussions among us as we consider the implications of our baptismal witness in our homes, church and also society.

Father Guy

To all OLG C Parishioners:

Words alone could never express our deep appreciation for the outpouring of support that was displayed by our parish family during the time of our sorrow and grief in the passing of our mother on Ash Wednesday and just recently, my brother Jack who died unexpectedly on April 17th.

The many cards, flowers and Mass intentions received, reflects a symbol of spiritual strength within our parish community and the important part it plays in our daily lives.

A special thank you to Fr. Guy who over the years has become a close family friend, for walking with and guiding us through the healing process.

May God continue to bless you, each of you.

Tom and Helen Kissell family

Did You Know?

From its earliest days, becoming a Christian has been accomplished by a journey with several stages of initiation (catechumenate). The Second Vatican Council restored the catechumenate in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. (RCIA). There is a special section of the RCIA for children.

"400 Club" Update

Drawing of the weekly "400 Club" winner has begun, but tickets will continue to be sold up to the limit of 400 tickets sold. These tickets will be on sale AFTER the weekend Masses.

We are quite short of reaching the goal of 400 tickets sold, so if you have not turned in your ticket please do so and also consider buying a second ticket if you can.

This endeavor brings in $10,000 to our parish which goes to maintenance issues on our church. Last year we had $50,000 in maintenance which was aided by the proceeds of the "400 Club".

Thank you for supporting this fund raiser and good luck on winning one of the many drawings.
