Gospel Living in the Catholic Tradition!

Fifth Sunday of Easter

May 14, 2017

In 1917 at Fatima in Portugal, three children are believed to have seen the Blessed Virgin Mary appear to them in what became known as the Apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima. This year, Catholics throughout the world are commemorating the event's Centennial.

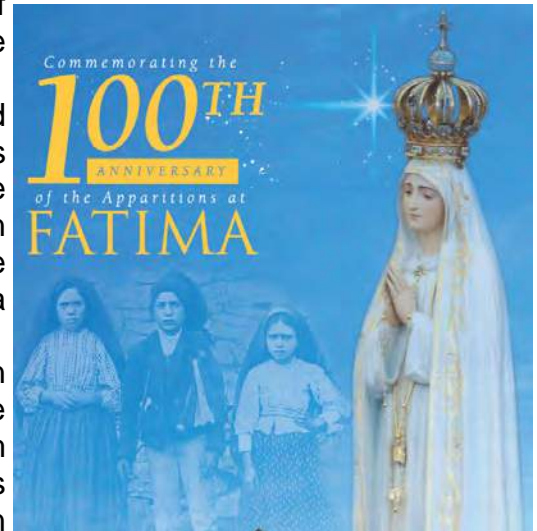

The three to whom the Blessed Virgin reportedly appeared were poor children of shepherders. One, Lúcia Santos, was nine-years-old at the time and died in February 2005. The other two, her cousins Jacinta and Francisco Marto, died in childhood during an influenza epidemic that ravaged Europe in the years after World War I. Lúcia, went on to become a Carmelite nun.

The apparitions took place for six straight months between May and October 1917. The visions reported by the three children were of a "luminous Lady" who eventually told them that she was "the Lady of the Holy Rosary." Mary's messages to the children chiefly concerned a call to prayer, conversion from sin and to offer individual sacrifices in order to obtain world peace.

The story of Fatima also includes the three famous "secrets" that were entrusted to the children. Two of the secrets were revealed in the early 1940's. The first was a vision of thousands of souls suffering in hell. The second was that the First World War would end, but that a second would come soon. The second secret also revealed the damage that Communist Russia would do in the world if allowed to go unchecked. The final secret was revealed in the year 2000 and had to do with the suffering that the Church would undergo, especially her leaders. The attempted assassination of Pope John Paul II on May 13, 1981 – the 64th Anniversary of the Apparitions – has been interpreted as the fulfillment of this secret.

"While Marian apparitions are not part of what the Church would call the "have to" beliefs for Roman Catholics, they nonetheless have captured the devotional life of the faithful. Fatima, especially, has become important due to the message Mary made against the backdrop of World War I and how much of what she asked for and the secrets she told the children have come to pass." words of the Cathedral-Basilica's Rector, Father Thomas Willis.

The Roman Catholic Church declared the apparitions at Fatima worthy of the faithful's veneration in 1930. Pope Pius XII, in 1946, gave papal approval to the apparitions and called on Catholics around the world to be devoted to the prayer of the rosary and to trust in Mary's promise that we will be guarded against the attacks of Satan when our lives are fully devoted to God.

Psalms — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

Second Reading — We, like living stones, let ourselves be built into a spiritual house (1 Peter 2:4-9).

MAJOR CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

True freedom, freedom worthy of the sons [and daughters] of God, is that freedom which most truly safeguards the dignity of the human person. It is stronger than any violence or injustice. Such is the freedom which has always been desired by the Church, and which she holds most dear. It is the sort of freedom which the Apostles resolutely claimed for themselves. The apologists defended it in their writings; thousands of martyrs consecrated it with their blood.

Pope Leo XIII

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ, as part of our five-year planning process, during this past year several of us have gathered monthly to seek ways to enrich our liturgy...to have us be evermore aware of the encounter with the Holy Presence in the Word, in the Eucharist, and in each other...to not only welcome all to Mass and fellowship, but to invite all to "full, conscious and active participation" in the Mass, as exhorted by the Church.

You shall be receiving a survey, via e-mail and surveymonkey, inviting your input and feedback to see how we might best serve each other and enrich our experience at Mass, and enhance our faith.

Thank you in advance for your response. Peace and joy, Fr. Frank
