TODAY'S READINGS: May 21, 2017
Sixth Sunday of Easter

O God, in Whom we live and move, and have our being, grant us rain, in due abundance, for the well-being of our communities and the prosperity of all. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Bring the waters of refreshment to quench them so to provide relief and restoration to us once again.

MAJOR CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

Respect for nature by everyone, a policy of openness to immigrants, the cancellation or significant reduction of the debt of poorer nations, the promotion of peace through dialogue and negotiation, the primacy of the rule of law: these are the priorities which the leaders of the developed nations cannot disregard. A global world is essentially a world of solidarity!

St. John Paul II

A WELL OILED MACHINE! That was the comment made by a few of the clergy who joined us for the celebration of Pat O'Brien's funeral including the luncheon. There was a large crowd, and as typical OLGC was at the top of the game in terms of hospitality. Thank you so much for all of those who helped to set up and take down tables and chairs, to those who prepared food and cooked it, to those who also served it, to those who cleaned up tables afterwards, and of course to those who coordinated everything with Helen Stafford. What a pleasure to also see Jackie Coonahan back among us. And of course thanks to our servers at the altar, and singers in the choir under the direction of Mary Halbeisen.

Ministries, hospitality, Choir and music, servers at the altar and the like are all very important manifestations of this community and the Spirit flowing through it. It is important that we manage these gifts of the Spirit well.

And so if you are the coordinating head of a ministry, please work intentionally with Don Pepino to make sure that successor planning is being done in your particular ministry, both for the good of the ministry itself, and also to make sure that no one particular person is burdened with the whole load.

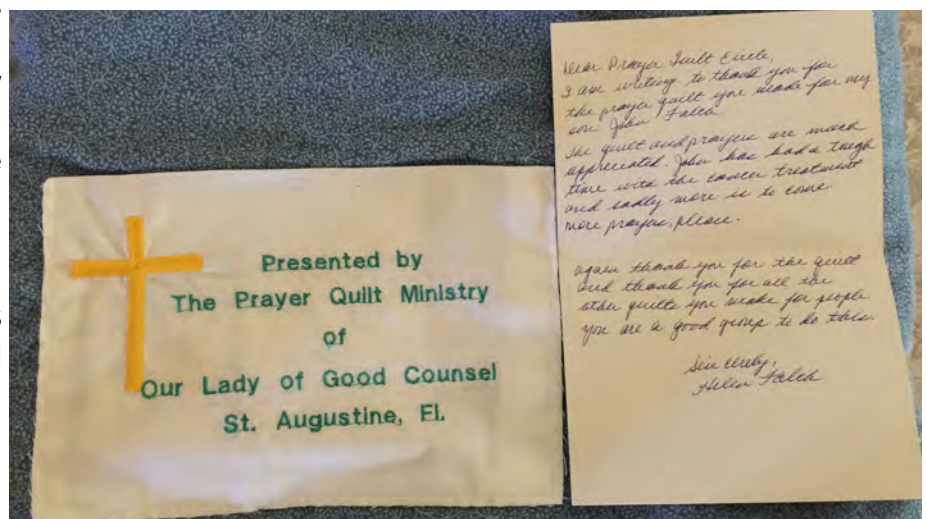

I have asked Don to address this with each one of the ministry chairs, and I am hoping that we will soon have a picture of the present and future health of our ministries. In the meantime, God bless, and thank you for making Our Lady of Good Counsel the Parish that we are becoming.

Fr. Guy

The members of the Prayer Quilt Ministry know how much the quilts are appreciated by the recipients, but more importantly, the prayers. We frequently receive thank you notes from them or their family. We always welcome new members to the ministry, even if you can't sew we can find a task for you. Our next meeting is on June 6 at 9 am in Pod 7. Please consider joining us for prayer, work and fellowship.

Caring Hearts

Care for Caregivers

Caring for a family member or loved one is gratifying, but it also can be challenging. The Caring Hearts Ministry is designed to relieve the caregiver for free time so they can run errands, take care of business or relax.

A Diocesan Cleared Volunteer from our parish will come to your home and provide periodic relief to a primary caregiver.

To schedule a volunteer, contact Louise Kuca: 678.622.5718 or louisekuca@gmail.com

Please Note: This is a visitation service only, no medical care will be available.

The OLCG Garden is growing! Our Garden produces fresh vegetables for our pantry as well as having individual spots for families to garden. We need you. There are wide range of volunteer opportunities for all levels of abilities. You do not need to know how to garden. And, there is still time to plant if you would like a family garden spot. We would love to have you join us. If you are interested in joining our ministry contact Mindy Benedict at 904.318.4328 or MBtheRD@gmail.com

EXTREMES

If you wish to go to extremes, let it be in sweetness, patience, humility, and charity.
