MAJOR CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

If religion has so neglected the needs of the poor and of the great mass of workers and permitted them to live in the most horrible destitution while comforting them with the solace of a promise of a life after death when all tears shall be wiped away, then that religion is suspect. Who would believe such Job's comforters? On the other hand, if those professing religion shared the life of the poor and worked to better their lot and risked their lives as revolutionaries do, and trade union organizers have done in the past, then there is a ring of truth about the promises of the glory to come. The cross is followed by the resurrection.

Did You Know?

The great heritage of faith is entrusted to the whole of the Church. The apostles were given to share the "Sacred Deposit" that is the Sacred Scripture and Tradition. In maintaining, professing, and practicing the faith that has been handed on, there exists a harmony between the Magisterium and the faithful.
CCC# 84-85

"And this is the job of the catechist: constantly to go forth to others out of love to bear witness and to talk about Jesus, to proclaim Jesus. This is important because the Lord does it; it is the Lord that impels us to go forth." Pope Francis' address to Catechists, September 27, 2013

The New Parishioner Welcoming Ministry:

This ministry is looking for one or two new members to help in this special ministry. If you are a registered member of OLGC for the past 2 to 3 years, consider becoming a member.

This ministry welcomes into our Parish, in a formal manner, all those newly registered members over a certain time span who are then formally invited to attend the scheduled session and then reminded via phone. The new parishioner is asked to spend a couple hours with our ministries members and Father Guy to discuss the history of our Church and to ask questions in an open forum. Our focus is on the questions that have been on the minds of our new parishioners concerning our Parish and where we are going and some items they like or dislike or perhaps talents they can bring to this great Parish. There is an effort to share as much information as possible concerning their new Parish with these New Parishioners. There are 6 evening sessions held during the fiscal year.

Consider being a part of this Welcoming Ministry and helping new members get acquainted with OLGC. Contact Ed Wagner [h-940-6967] or email [edjwags@gmail.com] and he will get back to you. Thanks for your consideration of this request.
