Fall Festiv'All Results

The 2017 Fall Festiv'All turned out to be a great event producing a profit of $11,000. None of this would have been possible without the more than 150 volunteers the day of the Festiv'All along with hundreds of hours of planning, setup and takedown. OLGC is truly blessed to have such a thriving volunteer base. We'd also like to thank those that took time to enjoy our car show, pumpkin patch, and Festiv'All.

From our observations there were many happy parishioners! It truly was an event for all!

Our sincere thanks to all involved and all attendees from the Festiv'All Lead Team: Rick Jarvis, Mark Youngclaus, Helen Strohm, Ken Grover & Tom Donato.

THANK YOU, PUMPKIN:

A hearty thank-you to Tommy Donato and crew for the hours of welcome and sales to visitors at the pumpkin patch. This was started numerous years ago by Bob Pero and other volunteers, and has continued ever since. It is a labor of hospitality, creativity and endurance through heat and cold, rain and shine. The last pumpkin was sold this past weekend, and many children and parents have happily carved tooth-full designs into the gourds' hide to add smiles and cheer to the Halloween season. Thank you one and all.

THANK YOU, MON CHOU:

Thanks also to Mary Ellen Davidson, Susie Waud, Louise Kuca and other committee members who put on a very pleasant Friday evening social in honor of those who work so hard in the food pantry and in the garden ministry. These ministries have grown. Those within the ministries have grown in friendship, and also some ecumenical ventures with the Village Church and others have been part of the fruit of the garden. Very soon there will also be a memorial plaque to Patrick O'Brien, in whose memory the garden ministry instituted a butterfly garden. Fr. Guy
