MAJOR CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

On Reconstructing the Social Order (Quadragesimo Anno)

This encyclical, written to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of Rerum Novarum, reaffirms the Church's concern for workers and defends workers' rights, including just wages, and condemns the increasing disparities between the elite and suffering workers. Pope Pius XI notes the need for state intervention but also introduces the idea of "subsidiarity," or the idea that we should help those people closest to a problem to resolve it with social support as needed. He proposes reconstruction of society into new systems that would involve all groups within society working together for the good of all. Pius XI upholds the right to private property and also says that goods also have a social purpose and must serve the whole human race. He warns against excessive individualism as well as collectivism, communism, and various types of socialism that have developed.

Please contact Parish Office for registration instructions. These volunteers must also attend a class called "Protecting God's Children" ("PGC"). Please provide a copy of your completed "PGC" certificate to our Parish Office. Classes can be found online at www.virtus.org. A diocesan volunteer application must be submitted to OLGC Parish Office. Please call the Parish Office if you have any questions. No persons ministering with minor children or vulnerable adults may do so unless they have fully completed all requirements (Diocesan policy per Bishop Estévez).

Baptism: Preparation must be made in advance and Baptismal Class for the parents is required for those wishing to have their children baptized. Class is First Saturday at 9 am, please contact Deacon Mark Scullio: mvscullio1981@gmail.com
